

ABOUT CABARRUS COUNTRY CLUB

Founded in 1927, Cabarrus Country Club is one of the oldest and, more importantly, one of the friendliest country clubs in the South.

Cabarrus Country Club was originally located where Carolinas Medical Center NorthEast and Carolina Mall in Concord currently occupy, moving to its present location and beginning new traditions in 1966. When Cabarrus Country Club was at the original location, due to city lines at the time, it was actually in Kannapolis city limits.

In 1964, Cabarrus Country Club exchanged 16.29 acres of land with Cabarrus Memorial Hospital for 300 acres of Clear Springs Farm located on US 29 South in Concord where the club planned to relocate for a new 18-hole championship golf course. The following year, a Shelby developer, D. W. Royster, Jr. approached the Club to purchase the 23.5 acre tract of Club property that bordered US 29 and Country Club Drive, just north of Cabarrus Memorial Hospital. CCC members voted on Tuesday, July 13th, 1965 on whether to sell the land and the sale was announced to the public the following fall on Tuesday, September 21st.

THE ANNUAL CHARITY

This charity golf tournament aims to raise funds for the local Scouting America council to fund and reduce our operational costs, allowing more of our resources to be invested back into program delivery for youth right here in our communities. The single-day event will feature an 18-hole scramble for up to 72 golfers at the Cabarrus Country Club, followed by a donor awards luncheon. Deliverables are strictly limited to venue coordination, player registration, and tournament day execution, excluding any long-term promotional campaigns or multi-year sponsorship recruitment.
