Central North Carolina Council Fee FAQ's

Q: Where will the registration fee go?
The entirety of the National registration fee goes to the National Council. The Central North Carolina Council Fee stays here and will support the Central North Carolina Council (CNCC) providing numerous district events with no event registration fee for youth and adults in the Central North Carolina Council. The CNCC Fee supports the operation by keeping our camp, the Scouts BSA Scout Shop, and the CNCC office open and maintained. In addition, the CNCC Fee helps offset part of the cost of insurance coverage.

Q: What activities will the Central North Carolina Council Fee include?
The CNCC Fee includes the following events with no registration fee:

- District Cub Scout Pinewood Derby
- District Spring Cub Scout Target Sports Day
- District Fall Cub Scout Target Sports Day
- District Spring Camporee (for Scouts BSA Troops, Venturing Crews, and Sea Scout Ships)
- District Fall Camporee (for Scouts BSA Troops, Venturing Crews, and Sea Scout Ships)
- Annual District Banquets for Adult Leaders

The Central North Carolina Council fee also provides a subsidy for the following events Council events:

- Cub Scout Fall Family Fest
- Cub Scout Spring Family Fest
- NESA Merit Badge Mania
- Cub Scout Day Camps
- Scouts BSA Winter Camp

Q: Can we register for other district's events?
Yes, you will be able to register for other district's events if there are spaces available.

Q: Will we still have to register for the included events?
Yes, while these events will have no registration fee, you will need to register for them as each event will have a maximum number of attendees it can accommodate. These event caps will be listed on each event's registration page. The CNCC Fee will cover the registration fee but will not include food at these events unless specifically stated.
